Living By The Rules

Our goal is to provide a safe Christian environment for all campers. Below is a list of rules that we must enforce to protect our campers and maintain our high standards. Parents - please review these rules with your child. Parents and campers should sign below, indicating the camper's commitment to live by these rules while at Mt. Palomar Bible Camp.

1. Males may not enter female cabins and females may not enter male cabins.
2. Campers may not leave their cabins earlier than 7:30 A.M.
3. Absolutely no lighters, matches, or any other fire-producing devices will be permitted at camp.
4. You may not reassign other campers to others beds or dorm rooms. Other campers' possessions, including bedding, are completely off limits.
5. You may not leave the camp for any reason without the expressed permission of the Camp Director. This includes for hikes that are not organized by staff.
6. All campers must attend all organized activities.
7. Displays of affection beyond handholding will not be permitted.
8. Swimsuits may not be worn other than to, from and in the swimming pool. Campers must cover-up while walking to and from the pool area.
9. Modest clothes are required. Shorts should fall on the lower half of your thighs. Bare midriffs are unacceptable. To prevent undergarments from being exposed, tank top straps should be 1.5 inches wide and pants must be secured around the waist or hips. Camp staff reserves the right to request that campers promptly change their clothes if campers are not dressed modestly. Please see the "Dress Standards" letter in the information packet for more details.
10. Electronic devices including radios, CD players, Ipods, Game Boys, laptops, etc. are not allowed.
11. Tobacco, drug or alcohol use will not be tolerated and will require the camper be sent home.
12. No knives (including pocket knives) or weapons of any kind are allowed. Violation will mean the camper may be sent home.
13. If staff must speak with a camper multiple times about behavior that is not in line with camp standards and/or is a disruption to camp, that camper can be sent home at the discretion of the Camp Director(s).

I agree to behave in a manner that is both respectful of Mt. Palomar Bible Camp staff and campers, as well as the Palomar Christian Conference Center staff and facilities. I will comply with the rules of Mt. Palomar Bible Camp as outlined above. I understand that violation of these rules may result in disciplinary action, including the possibility of being sent home. IMPORTANT NOTE: If a camper must be sent home, the parents agree to come and pick him/her up without a refund.

Dear Parent/Guardian,

It is wonderful to know that your son/daughter has chosen to participate in our annual Palomar Mountain Christian Camp. Our prayer is that your child will draw closer to our Lord and the cross of Calvary by something that is said or done during camp. We are very excited about this year's camping experience for your camper(s).

Each summer, young people come to camp and make a decision to follow Christ. The death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ is the essence of the gospel message. God wants everyone to respond to this grace through faith (I Timothy 2:4-5; Ephesians 2:8-10). We pray the week your child is in camp that the Lord will use us to teach the message of God's love, mercy and grace.

This letter is our way of emphasizing the importance of baptism in a young person's life and making sure that you as parents/guardians are part of that decision. We will make you aware of your child's decision prior to any immersion. Time will be provided for questions, study, and visits with you and your child to ensure they understand the purpose of baptism and the ramifications of dying to self. Please provide an accurate recall number (home, cell, work) and any appropriate comments/instructions regarding the possibility of their conversion to Jesus Christ during camp. If you would rather them wait until they return home for more instruction, teaching, etc, please specify in the comments.

Completing the information in this letter is just as vital to us as the medical release forms. We cannot overemphasize the importance of having this completed letter at camp. Please complete this form during your registration process: on-line or in your downloaded camp packet. We will have blank copies of this letter available during check-in if you forget to complete prior to arrival at camp.

We consider it a blessing and privilege to share the Christian camp experience with your child.
